DINING PLAN: Required See the Residence Education and Housing Services Residence Hall Handbook for terms and conditions.

A dining plan is required, except for those residing in Van Hoosen Hall, Williams Hall, University Village Apartments, and some apartments within other residence halls designated by Residence Education and Housing Services. You must select a dining plan during preference selection online. If your Contract is for an undergraduate hall, and you do not choose a required dining plan, DineOn Silver will be selected for you. Limited dining hours and locations are available during the summer. Visit www.eatatstate.com for dining information.

SPARTAN CASH: Optional unless DineOn Platinum or DineOn Gold Dining Plan is selected.

By choosing a DineOn Platinum or DineOn Gold dining plan, I understand that MSU will automatically deposit funds in my Spartan Cash debit account each semester. I may choose to open a Spartan Cash debit account with a $50 minimum initial deposit if it is not included in my dining plan, or if I am not required to have a dining plan. I may also choose to deposit additional funds into my Spartan Cash debit account at any time online at www.spartancash.com or by visiting the Guest Services Office. See www.spartancash.com for a complete list of vendors that accept Spartan Cash and to review the Spartan Cash Terms and Conditions.

STUDENT HOUSING CONTRACT WITH MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

The Contract, and the related terms and conditions, set forth the benefits and responsibilities of the residents and the University. All students who live in a housing unit must honor the Contract through its duration.

Student Housing Policy
Michigan State University, in its housing system, seeks to provide an educational environment which is maximally conducive to the learning process of students. Consistent with this philosophy, a variety of living options that are supported by student fees is made available in University housing. The University has requirements for on-campus residence to promote an optimal learning environment for students. Any undergraduate student enrolled in seven or more credits at Michigan State University for a semester, summer semester excluded, is subject to the University’s housing regulations. Compliance with the University housing policy is a condition of enrollment.

All rules and regulations in the Residence Hall Handbook and Spartan Life, as well as other Residence Education and Housing Services rules and procedures, are incorporated herein by reference.

On-campus Housing Requirement
Students, except as otherwise provided in this section, who have earned less than 28 academic credit hours must live in on-campus housing as a condition of enrollment. Students are exempt from the on-campus housing requirement if they meet one of the following criteria:

1. Married.
2. 20 years or older by the first day of classes at the University.
3. U.S. armed services veteran with at least one year of active service.
4. Living with parent(s) or legal guardian(s).
5. Taking six or fewer credits during a semester.

Failure to adhere to the on-campus housing requirement may result in termination of enrollment.

Special Permission
Any student seeking an exception to the on-campus housing requirement must apply for the exception prior to moving into University housing. The procedures to apply for an exception can be obtained by contacting the Department of Student Life, Student Services Building, 556 E. Circle Drive, Room 101, East Lansing, Michigan, 48825, at 517-355-8286 or visiting www.studentlife.msu.edu.

Non-discrimination
Residence Education and Housing Services does not discriminate in room or hall assignments on the basis of race, color, age, gender, gender identity, disability, height, marital status, national origin, political persuasion, religion, sexual orientation, veteran status or weight.

Eligibility
Residents must be currently enrolled in a degree-granting program at Michigan State University and have received official housing assignments. Failure to maintain the required enrollment for any reason will result in termination of this Contract. Any resident who disenrolls must vacate immediately and is responsible for any accrued charges.

The University reserves the right to place limits on the number of residents in a housing unit based on occupancy. Residence Education and Housing Services will assign rooms based on space availability.

When a student under the age of 18 applies for on-campus housing, a parent/legal guardian must sign the Contract. Parents of students who are under the age of 17 are advised to meet with the Residence Education and Housing Services staff to gain understanding of campus living.
